

VESTRY MAY MEET GRANT IN SICK ROOM

Fate of the Church of the Ascension Forum Is Expected to Be Settled To-Day.

The meeting to-day of the Vestry of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension probably will settle the future of the public forum meetings which have been held in that church and against which Bishop Burch has protested. This meeting will be in the parish house in the Rev. Dr. Grant's room, if necessary. Dr. Grant is still ill, but it is believed he is improved enough to give his views.

Five vestrymen are inclined to discontinue holding forum assemblies in the church or any step indicating disobedience to the solemn protest of Bishop Burch.

men assume to know what Dr. Grant's views are. One of the leading vestrymen said yesterday they all are very fond of Dr. Grant and a majority is in favor of the forum, but not necessarily in the church. He admitted believing the church is not the proper place for the meetings and also that he is opposed to doing anything contrary to the expressed wish or order of the Bishop. He said, however, the Vestry was eager to know what the rector would like to have done in the matter.

The Vestry has full power to settle the matter definitely. Red Star Line to Resume Full Service to Antwerp Feb. 25. Full service of the reorganized Red Star Line between here and Antwerp will be resumed after Feb. 25, it was announced yesterday by the International Mercantile Marine Company. The vessels that will make up the fleet are the Lapland, Zealand, Kronland and Finland. The Lapland, a British vessel, already is running to Antwerp. The Zealand, a British, is being reconditioned in England. During the war she was known as the Portland and ran between Philadelphia and Liverpool. The Kronland and Finland, American vessels, are being fitted out in Hoboken.

Smith and Daniels to Speak at Dinner to Cummings Feb. 5. Charles B. Alexander, Chairman of the committee in charge of the dinner to be given next Thursday night to National Chairman Homer E. Cummings by the National Democratic Club, announced yesterday that the speakers would be Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Gov. Smith and Mr. Cummings. John M. Riehl, President of the club, will be toastmaster.
